

USFCR ACADEMY

USFCR Academy is a federal procurement learning resource designed for contractors of all experience levels. Clients enrolled in the Academy have access to educational modules, live webinars, and focused training sessions through a variety of programs. Training sessions are held in a virtual environment either live or in recorded sessions.

CONTRACTING CHALLENGES

Steep Learning Curve

Learning the proper procedures for government contracting can take months or even years.

Accessibility

Not all businesses can access publicly available contracting education resources due to time or geographic constraints.

Dynamic Sector

Rules for how to conduct business with the federal government are always changing with new policies.

Limited Attention

Publicly available contracting education resources are limited in how much one-on-one attention they can give to businesses.

INSIDE USFCR'S SOLUTION

By enrolling in USFCR Academy, businesses have access to a wide range of learning resources and a government contracting network. Contact us to learn about the various Academy programs.

VIDEO MODULES

A video library of lessons for beginner and advanced learners.

LIVE WEBINARS

USFCR holds Bid Training sessions every week covering a specific topic.

SOLICITATION REVIEW

USFCR bid trainers assist you in interpreting government solicitations.

BID EVALUATION

Through Bid Training, businesses can have their proposals evaluated before submission.

NETWORKING

USFCR Academy also serves as a virtual government contracting networking space.

BENEFITS

Content for All Levels

USFCR Academy offers a library of simplified content for contractors of all experience ranges.

Virtual Learning

USFCR Academy's webinars can be accessed anywhere

Constant Updates

Content is always updated as policies and regulations change in the federal marketplace.

One-On-One Attention

Access to a dedicated bid training team via email for support and contracting questions when enrolled in Bid training.